

News Advisory

For Immediate Release
Wednesday, June 14, 2006
Media contacts:
Cody Craynor
Public Information Officer
(801) 538-6232

Cannon Building Employees pay Tribute to Building Namesake, Martha Hughes Cannon

- WHAT: Employees of the Utah Department of Health (UDOH) and guests will fire off two civil-war era replica cannons and walk the “150 Years of Public Health History Mile,” to commemorate the 20 year anniversary of the Dr. Martha Hughes Cannon Building dedication. The event will pay tribute to the building’s namesake and promote physical activity for employees as they walk the Gold Medal Mile trail lined with signs highlighting key public health milestones from the past 150 years.
- WHO: Cannon Building and UDOH staff will be present. A brief presentation will include comments from UDOH leadership prior to the cannons being fired.
- WHEN: Thursday, June 15
10 – 10:30 a.m.
- WHERE: Martha Hughes Cannon Building
288 North 1460 West
Salt Lake City
The event will be held directly behind the Cannon Building with the Gold Medal Mile walk just northwest of the Cannon Building.

###